WILLIAM MADAR, NORDSON EXECUTIVE, JOINS CMA BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Michael Sherwin, president of the Board of Trustees to Cleveland Museum of Art, is pleased to announce the election of William P. Madar to the museum's Board of Trustees, effective January 1, 1996.

Mr. Madar has been President and Chief Executive Officer of Nordson Corporation in Cleveland since 1986. Nordson manufactures and markets worldwide industrial equipment, along with the software and application technologies that enhance its use. Prior to this, he had been associated with The Standard Oil Company (now BP America) for twenty years.

Mr. Madar is a 1961 graduate of Purdue with a degree in Chemical Engineering. He received an MBA from Stanford University in 1965. He is active in community affairs serving on the Advisory Council of the Graduate School of Business of Stanford University and as Chairman of the Boards of Trustees of both the Northeast Ohio Council on Higher Education and Leadership Cleveland. He also serves as a Trustee on the Boards of Cleveland Tomorrow, The Cleveland Clinic Foundation, the Playhouse Square Foundation and Hawken School.

Mr. Madar is a director of National City Bank, Brush Wellman Inc., and Lubrizol Corporation. He and his wife, Amanda, live in Cleveland.
